

Nicole Faber

FRANKFURT GERMANY TEMPLE OPEN HOUSE COMMITTEE

Nicole Faber is responsible for supporting the media and invited guests. She exercises this function in addition to her voluntary Church office as the Frankfurt Stake Public Affairs Representative and her profession.

Between 1996 and 1999 in Hamburg she studied business administration at the Hamburg Business Academy and was subsequently employed in various positions in the finance administration of an American petroleum company. She is enthusiastic about adult education and enjoys her work as a public service employee.

Nicole Faber joined the Church in Hamburg when she was 21 and has had various callings since then. She has served as the children's service leader, Sunday School president, and president of the ward women's group.
