

Sabine M. Fiedler

FRIEDRICHSDORF GERMANY STAKE RELIEF SOCIETY PRESIDENCY

Sabine M. Fiedler serves as a Counselor in the Friedrichsdorf Germany Stake Relief Society Presidency. She exercises this voluntary church office in addition to her profession.

After graduating from technical School and training as a doctor's assistant in Dortmund, she worked from 1979 to 1984 as Chief Secretary in the Physical Facilities Department of the Church's European Area

Office in Frankfurt am Main. From 1986 to 1991 she worked as Chief Secretary in the Genealogical Society of Utah of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. After bringing up her children, she has been working since 2016 as an assistant to the management of FamilySearch, a charitable organisation sponsored by the Church of Jesus Christ.

Sabine Fiedler has had several callings in the church. Following technical school graduation, she served a two-year voluntary stake mission in Dortmund. Additionally, she has served, amongst others, as a Temple Worker, Seminary Teacher, together with her husband as Young Single Adult Advisor, Young Women President, Counselor in the Primary organisation, in Young Women and in Relief Society. She has also worked in social projects in the Friedrichsdorf Germany Stake helping refugees. She is currently Second Counselor in the Stake Relief Society.

Sabine Fiedler was born on October 18, 1958 in Dortmund. She has been married to her husband Hans since 1989. They are parents of 5 grown-up children and live in Büdingen.

THE CHURCH OF
JESUS CHRIST
OF LATTER-DAY SAINTS