

For Immediate Release

Public Invited to Tour the Frankfurt Germany Temple

FRANKFURT — The public is invited to tour the newly remodeled Frankfurt Germany Temple of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. The free open house is Friday, September 13, to Saturday, September 28, 2019, excluding Sundays.

The temple, which is located several miles north of Frankfurt in the historic city of Friedrichsdorf, will be formally rededicated on Sunday, October 20, 2019 in three sessions. There will also be a youth devotional with senior Church leaders on Saturday, October 19, 2019.

The Frankfurt Germany Temple closed in 2015 to accommodate a renovation and enlargement of the temple including a new underground baptistry. It was originally the fifth temple built in Europe and the second built in the current boundaries of Germany, following the Freiberg Germany Temple. During the Frankfurt Temple's week-and-a-half open house in 1987 over 70,000 people visited the sacred structure.

There are 40,000 members of the Church in Germany in 152 congregations. There are currently 209 temples worldwide announced, operating, or under construction.

Latter-day Saint temples differ from churches where members meet for Sunday worship services. Temples are considered “houses of the Lord” where the teachings of Jesus Christ are reaffirmed through marriage, baptism and other ceremonies that unite families for eternity.

For more information about the purpose of temples and their importance to Latter-day Saints, please visit www.presse-mormonen.de/artikel/tempel.

For more information about the Frankfurt Germany Temple, please go to www.presse-mormonen.de.

###

Contact Information:

Dr. Ralf Grünke

Phone: +49 69 54802265

Mobile: +49 176 14492265

ralf.gruenke@churchofjesuchrist.org